

NOVEMBER

From late night's hilarious new host to electropop's It Girl—ELLE plans the agenda

Start

1

JUDITH FOX

Monday, November 2

LOVE NOT LOST When her husband was diagnosed with Alzheimer's more than 11 years ago, photographer Judith Fox used her camera lens to cope. Now she's compiled the pictures into a stunning book, I Still Do: Loving and Living With Alzheimer's (powerHouse), which tells a heartbreaking love story about a partnership that withstands illness and aging.

"I'M MARRIED, SO THIS WAS A GREAT EXCUSE TO GET OUT...ON A SATURDAY NIGHT."
—WANDA SYKES

ADRIANNE PALICKI

EMMANUELLE CHRIQUI

CONNIE BRITTON

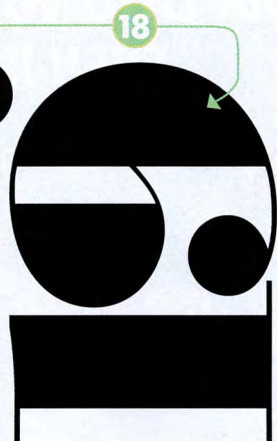

Saturday, November 7, 11 P.M. EST

GET SYKED It won't be the first time she's starred in a Fox show (2003's Wanda at Large fizzled after two seasons), but on tonight's premiere of The Wanda Sykes Show, the Emmy-winning comedian will talk politics, host panel discussions on current events, and relieve Kristen Wiig from being the only woman who makes us laugh on Saturday nights.

Friday, November 13

CHICK FLICK Ignore the fact that filmmaker Sebastian Gutierrez cowrote Snakes on a Plane, and you'll come to respect Women in Trouble, an indie comedy that connects 10 random women (a porn star, a flight attendant, and a psychiatrist, to name a few) and stars Carla Gugino, Adrienne Palicki, Connie Britton, and Emmanuelle Chriqui.

Thursday, November 19

THE BUZZ ON BROADWAY After a successful run at Berkeley Repertory Theatre, Sarah Ruhl's new play, In the Next Room or the vibrator play opens on the Great White Way tonight. The sexually charged comedy follows a nineteenth-century doctor who prescribes some much-needed, er, stimulation to treat his female patients.

GEMMA WARD

3

Happy birthday to Australian model turned actress Gemma Ward, who is 22 today.

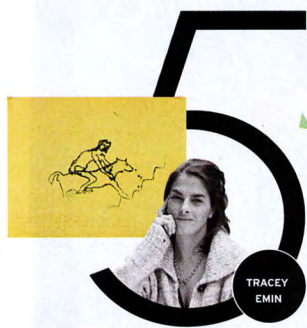

8 9 10 11

This month, chef-to-watch Daniel Stern opens cocktail restaurant R2L on the 37th floor of 2 Liberty Place, one of the tallest skyscrapers in Philly.

12

4

TRACEY EMIN

Thursday, November 5

CRAZY SEXY COOL British artist Tracey Emin first made headlines with racy installations (her 1998 work My Bed showed an unmade bed littered with condoms and underwear; it also earned her a Turner Prize nod), and today she shows her brand of provocative cool, which ranges from neon signs to watercolors, videos, and sketches, at NYC's Lehmann Maupin gallery.

6

17

Tuesday, November 17

ELECTRIC FEEL After months of delays and a label change, Norwegian electropop princess Annie finally releases her dance-floor-friendly sophomore album, Don't Stop, today. We'll be grooving to "My Love Is Better," a sugary, high-energy tune that we dedicate to every ex who wronged us.

ANNIE

14 15 16

20 21 22 23 24 25

Happy Thanksgiving

We've got one of our own, Godey's Lady's Book magazine editor Sarah Josepha Hale, to thank for making today a national holiday. In 1837, she started a one-woman print and letter-writing campaign that eventually caught the attention of Abraham Lincoln, who endorsed her idea in 1863.

27 28 29 30

I Still Do: courtesy of the publisher; Fox: © Aaron Serafino; Sykes: courtesy of Fox; Palicki: Jason LaVeris/FilmMagic; Chriqui: Jeffrey Mayer/WireImage; Britton: Walter McBride/Retna Ltd.; Ward: Don Arnold/Getty Images; martini: image source/Getty Images; Emin: Scott Douglas; Emin art piece: courtesy of the artist; Annie: Nina Merikallio

ELLE

32
CELEB BEAUTY SECRETS THAT WORK ON EVERYONE
GLOSSY HAIR,
DEWY SKIN,
SEXY MAKEUP!

KATIE
HOLMES

*Her career-defining role, her fashion picks,
and making it work with Tom and Suri*

FASHION!

WHAT TO WEAR NOW

435+

IDEAS: BAGS, BOOTS, JEANS, AND PARTY DRESSES THAT WILL CHANGE YOUR LIFE

THE WOMEN IN HOLLYWOOD

ISSUE!

RENÉE, JULIANNE, ROBIN, ZOE, EMILY, AND JULIE!

PLUS:
ELLE'S POWER LIST

THE 63 MOST LOVED AND FEARED IN THE BIZ

EXCLUSIVE PHOTOS!

BRAD, GWYNETH,
SCARLETT, HALLE BEFORE THEY WERE FAMOUS

NOVEMBER 2009
USA $3.99
CANADA $4.99
ELLE.COM

